Additional Information	Malcolm and Mano have been hosting international students for the last 20 years. As hosts, they are sensitive to their needs and interact with their students on a personal and caring level. The students are guided and taught about Melbourne and its culture so that they can learn to become independent. The accommodation is governed by a set of rules to ensure that the student's safety is addressed at all times irrespective of age under the ESOS ACT. All our students are provided with an optimal learning environment. Mano Guy was born in Malaysia (of Chinese/Indian heritage) and holds a degree in psychology, business management and Diploma in International Education. She is currently close to completing a course in Management and Leadership. She is an active committee member of ISANA, a peak body that supports international education professionals working in student services, advocacy and teaching. She is also fully trained in first aid, occupational health and safety procedures and safe food handling. She enjoys cooking and gets great pleasure in hosting international students. Malcolm Guy was born in Australia and has worked extensively in senior management in Hong Kong and Taiwan. He has also owned and managed his own telecommunication business for 8 years in Melbourne. He is very familiar with the Asian culture and traditions and understands the sensitivity of international students when they arrive in a new country. He ensures that the accommodation rooms are well equipped and the students' needs are well-looked after. The accommodation is close to banks, post offices, Queen Elizabeth market, supermarkets, cafes, public transport, hospitals, medical clinics, pharmacies, library, gym, Melbourne Zoo and parklands. Regular children and police checks are conducted on both Malcolm and Mano and the reports are forwarded to the appropriate schools and agents.
